Description:

Anantara Resort Golden Triangle is a luxury resort located in the heart of the Golden Triangle region, near the border of Thailand, Laos, and Myanmar. The resort is situated on a lush, green hillside overlooking the Salween River. It features a variety of accommodations, including villas, suites, and rooms, all designed with a blend of traditional Thai architecture and modern amenities. The resort offers a range of activities, from cultural performances and traditional Thai cooking classes to outdoor adventures like hiking and river rafting. The Golden Triangle is a region of historical significance, known for its role in the opium trade during the early 20th century. Today, it is a popular destination for tourists seeking a unique blend of history, culture, and natural beauty. The resort's location provides a perfect base for exploring the region's rich heritage and stunning landscapes.
